Tolerant- Transnational Network for Employment integRAtion of women vicTims of trafficking

Join TOLERANT network NOW and promote the VoT integration in labour market

TOLERANT is a transnational network aiming to support women victims of trafficking, by focusing on their integration in the labour market and their economic empowerment. It was created under the European project TOLERANT - “Transnational Network for Employment integRAtion of women vicTims of trafficking” and it is managed and maintained by the 6 member organizations of the Project’s Consortium, working for the support of women VOTs in Greece, Romania, Bulgaria, Italy and Austria.

The overall aim of the transnational network is to support the regular exchange of good practices, experiences and information related to groundwork for integrating women victims of trafficking for sexual exploitation (VoT) in employment and for promoting their economic empowerment.

In order to support the work of the network, a platform was developed, for the collection and sharing of relevant resources, approaches, methodologies and practices to address the needs of women VoTs for their labour integration.

The TOLERANT Network Platform (<http://www.tolerantnetwork.com/>) is developed for the benefit of a variety of actors and stakeholders from Europe and beyond, who are facing similar challenges with the labour integration of VoTs in their countries.

Do you want to fight human trafficking? Then, join the Tolerant Network and facilitate the integration of VoT in the labour market. We need you!

By supporting the VoT to take control of their lives and function as autonomously as possible in the country of stay, re-victimization will be reduced, as well as the risk of social exclusion, and the women will be able to become more active participants in the society.
